"Circulation Books Open to All,"

OLD GAME, NEW VICTIM.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

471,740

Worlds Per Day

ALL RECORDS BROKEN.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, AUGUST 10, 1894. NELLIE BLY FIGHTS CORBETT.

HOW THE WORLD'S COURAGEOUS CHAMPION KNOCKED OUT THE GREAT PUGILIST.

SUNDAY'S WORLD

IS IT CROSS OR

Trial Wednesday.

MARTIN NOT RUNNING THINGS!

"What Wellman Says About These Trials Goes," Says Commissioner Murray.

ELEVENTH PRECINCT CASES.

There seems to be a very distinct misinderstanding between the Police Comners as to the next step in th police trials, forced on the Board by the President Martin told "The Evening World" reporter yesterday that no captain would be tried until after the five accused sergeants of the Fourteenth Precinct, Capt. Doherty's old command bigger fish to fry than subo dinates.

Commissioner Murray was, in horse turlance, "hot under the collar" this when a reporter approached him and asked if it was settled tout he accused Bergeants would be the next o be tried.

understanding is that the matter of clecting who shall be next placed on trial rests entirely with Assistant District-Attorney Wollman. He might decide to place any of the accused Captains on trial, and the Board could not very well do otherwise than submit to him wishes."

wisnes."
Sut. suggested the reporter, "Pres-t Martin announced yesterday that Sergeants would be called for trial Wednesday." Wednesday."

That may be so, and it undoubtedly confined in the Commissioner, 'put yer theirss. If Mr. Wearman concludes pick out some Captain, I underly to do so, think there is considerable sapprehension concerning the matter.

Commissioner. The case was adjourned until Tuesday next. Chief of Detectives to the Mr. Chief of Detectives to the Mr. Chief of Detectives in the Commissioner. The case was adjourned until Tuesday next. Chief of Detectives to the American Commissioner. The case was adjourned until Tuesday next. Chief of Detectives to the Mr. C is so," replied the Commissioner, 'put haver-heites, if Mr. Weinman concludes to pick out some Captain, I understand he has authority to do so. I think there is considerable misapprehension concerning the matter. I do not understand that President Martin's announcement makes it obligatory on Mr. Weilman to try the sergeants next. I think if it is M. Weilman's decities and I understand and it is a dode-rire, and I understand that it is, to dis-pose of the captains' cases first, that no member of this Board will interpose an

Martin should have said that he Captain will be called for trial Wednesday neat."

"Mr. Wellman would not make a false statement to you," said Mr. Osborne to "The Evening World" reporter who was assured by Mr. Wellman at the close of the Headquarters conference yesterday that a captain would be called for trial next Wednesday, and clinched it with a remark that he was not trying subordinates just now.

In substantiation of Mr. Osborne's astonishment it may be mentioned that he has been engaged for the last two unity including to-day, in the examination of winesses in the Eleventh Precinct cases against Inspector McLaugnins, at one time Captain in that precinct; Capt. Adam A. Cross, now in the Fourteenth Precinct, and Capt. Devery.

I crimps this the captain would be tried next, and Commissioner Murray's statement that a captain would be tried next, and Commissioner would try such person as Mr. Wellman selected, and might summons a captain as well as the five Sergeants for Wednesday, and select for trail and closes that McLaughilin or Cross may be hauled before the Police Board on Wednesday next.

There is another point, Mr. Wellman he will not get another chance to leave the State, if the vigilance of experienced policemen can prevent it.

Whatever may be in store for next week, the five Fourteenth Precinct serice ants against whom charges of bribery and of receiving ball from a well-known disorderly-house keeper were filed yesterday, have been notified to appear. Wednesday morning before the Police Commissioners for trial. Bergts. Jordan, Clark, Lieber and Parkerson have retained Friend & House, and Sergt. Felix McKenna, the "bald-head," has engaged Samuel W. Adams to defend him.

Mr. Henry and this received the present of the bald-head of the conference of the ed." has engaged Samuel W. Adams to defend him.

M'LAUGHLIN?

Mr. House said this morning that his defend him.

Mr. House said this morning that his solidents would admit taking Mrs. Thurow as bail, but would prove the falsity of for the sergeant each time, especially as there was no shelf to put it on at the time.

Mr. Wellman has gone to Southampton. His assistant, Mr. Carrothers, says that he may, if a certain event occurs, return to the city to-morrow.

COOL WAVE WILL LINGER.

No Hot Weather 'In Expected fo Several Days.

Acting Weather Prophet H. C. Howe. ho is serving in the place of Forecaster Dunn during the latter's absence n Washington, was in a happy mood this morning, as his predictions for temperature here at 8 A. M. to-day was semperature nerg at 8 A. M. to-day was 65 degrees, twelve degrees cooler than at the same hour yesterday. The indications for this section are fair weather to-day and to-morrow, and continued cool weather, with only a very slight change in the temperature. The wind this morning was northerly, and blowing at the rate of twelve miles an hour.

AN AMBUSH AND A RUNAWAY.

West Virginia Doctor Shot--C. C Martin and Daughter Killed. (By Associated Preva.) CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.

Dr. J. William Davis, a prominent Montgomery physician, was shot at three times from ambush, yesterday while returning from visiting a patien Precinct, Capt. Doherty's old command, had been tried, and that they would be placed on trial next Wednesday.

To back up this statement all the reporters were treated to copies of the charges and specifications against these sergeants.

But Mr. Wellman as positively said that a captain would be put on trial and not the sergeants, intimating that he had bigger fish to fry than subor-

WEINBERG AGAIN ARRESTED.

Before a Commissione

When Discharged in Court. Perry Weinberg, wanted in Toronto on the charge of misappropriating $50 worth of jewelry, was discharged from custody on a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Truax this morning. He was at once rearrested and arraigned before United States Commissioner Alexander on a warrant issued by the Commis-

Weinberg's counsel objected to the form of the complaint against Wein-berg, but was not sustained by the Commissioner. The case was adjourned

A TENEMENT-HOUSE FIRE.

The Upsetting of a Can of Coal Oil Starts a iffixe.

The upsetting of a can of coal-oil started a fire at 9.65 o'clock this morntenement, 36 Chrystie street, in the apartments of Kate Werner.

crowded building, and in an instant the narrow hallways and the fire-escapes narrow hallways and the fire-escapes were jammed with excited and fright-ened men, women and children. No one seemed to comprehend the situation, and but few knew where the blaze was, or just what part of the house was in danger. The uncertainty of the situation made matters worse for the people in the upper stories, who hurriedly began piling their things together and getting ready to get out.

The fire was put out without much difficulty. The damage was $50.

FELL FROM WINDOWS.

Iwo Women Injured While at Work This Morning.

Annie Heitman, twenty-six years old,

Held for Trial.

in the Upper Chamber.

with the Conservatives.

By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The Tariff & Broadway this forenoon and looked struggle reached the Senate again to-pleasant while an "Evening World" reday in an unexpected way when, at porter tried to chat with him. 12.25 P. M. Senator Hill tried to obtain recognition to offer a resolution calling for information as to the status of the tariff conference

He was temporarily crowded out by other business, and while the resolution was lying on the table and had not been yesterday had proven correct. The read, Mr. Gray moved an executive ses-

> Few Senators voted on the viva voce Hill demanded the year and nays, and the roll was called. The motion was lost, yeas, 21; nays, 32. Senator Hill then had his resolution

Witnesses from That Dirtrict Being Examined by Counsel for the Prosecution.

| District Being | District Be Mr. Harris rose when the vote was

> Mr. Harris said that many propositions pro and con had been made, but nothing had been done Senator Sherman asked if the Tariff bill was before the Senate, and in an emphatic manner Mr. Harris sail it was Mr. Sherman then thought the resoluo the resolution. A chorus of "Oh, no"

Mr. Allison then outlined what the purpose of the resolution was and sugconferrees be instructed to report an agreement or disagreement. As one Benator, he said he would be glad to know what propositions had been made. If the conferroes had had a meeting, at which all were present, it would be legitimate to inquire as to this, but the proceedings were informal and partook of a friendly conference between members of the same party.

The matter was not in condition to make inquiry as to the differences. The Senate ought to exact that the conferrees should report an agreement or dis-agreement, so that the country might know what the trouble was regarding the bill. Mr. Hill then took the floor, and Mr. Gray asked what was the status of the

"Before the Senate," said Mr. Hill. milingly. Mr. Gray objected to further

Mr. Hill was privileged.

Several Senators stated that the resoion was before the Senate by unanimous onsent and further that it had been debated and an objection came too late. no objection having been raised when the Vive-President asked if there were

The point of order was debated at Meanwhile, the outside news of the Tariff situation was that the Democratic conferrees had resumed their sitting to day, and that during the beginning The cry of fire rang through the of the conference there was an inter change of suggestions, based upon the offer made by the Benate conferees, last evening, to accept free sugar, as > bill, on other items, to be accepted by the House.

> It did not take the conferees long to find that they could come to no agree-ment on this basis, and the first House provided in the House bill, the Senate

Within half an hour after the conference began, the Senate conferrees left the room and met Senator Gorman in the room of the Committee on Approprintions. Other conservative Senators were sent for and it was said that a point had been reached where a dec sion just after 12 o'clock that the Republicans had not yet been called in, but said emphatically that a disagreement had been decided upon by the Demo

KILLED WHEN A TENT FELL

Storm Causes One Death and Injures Several People. (By Associated Press.)

wind storm in Loudoun County, Va., last evening caused a big tent at Purof 120 East Houston street, was ar- cellville to collapse. Severa: thousand ruigned in Essex Market Court on a people were attending a temperance bush meeting in the tent and John Nichols, a young man of Philomont, Va., was by the big centre pole and in-days in locating Charles Prien.

The dive at 23 Bayard street, the dive at 24 Bayard street, the dive at 25 Bayard street, the dive at 26 Bayard street, the dive at 27 Bayard street, the dive at 28 Bayard street, the Independents.

Senate Conferes Again Consult Meanwhile Flower Goes Hunting for Harmony.

> Thomas C. Platt sat in his office at There was no sign that anything troubled Mr. Platt, notwithstanding the Committee meeting vesterday. The cries of "betraye !" and "traitor!" which rang through the halls of the State Club had evidently reached him only in the form of a faint echo.

There was even noticeable on Mr. Platt's countenance this morning just the ghost of a smile while the reporter was trying to get him to talk about the happenings of the last twenty-four

"Mr. Platt," the reporter ventured 'how about the accusations of Milnoland's followers that you have throws them over and are responsible for the present state of affairs?" The boss put his head a little closer i the letter be held in his hand and the grost of a smile galvanized into the real tring. Mr. Platt dismissed the allegation in two words.

"Hoy talk," he said.
"I will not," he continued, "talk about this affair to-day. Whatever you see printed or whatever is quoted as coming from me to-day on this subject will be pure invention.

Mr. Plant turned to his correspondence again and the gummering since vaginated.

sied.
It was pretty hard to find Milhollandtes who would alk this morning.
Henry Grasse took auvantage of the uli after the stores to fit away to Sullivan County for a few days recreased.
It was said at his office, 67 Broadway, hat he wouldn't return until next Wednesday.

that he wouldn't return until next Wednesday.

As Mr. Grasse is one of the most active members of the Milholland War. Committee this would seem to indicate that the wording of the declaration of independence to be made on Monday has been decided upon, and that it only remains to spring it upon a started punic. The Milholland mon are particularily bitter against Platt. They say that but for him lasre would not have been a Milholland organisation. They feel that Platt has been using them as catepases. Hereafter, they declare, they win act as independents in position. Before resorting to frames i measures an appeal will be made to the State Committee.

A committee, of wheat T. Thomas Fortune is charman, will meet this evening to draw up a statement to be presented to the State Committee.

A prominent Milholandites said to-day:
"We have every reason to because that Milholland will be "congulized at the Milholland in the Twenty-seventh District, said: "I will not enroll in the Bliss-Patterson organization. Our organization will be continued, and we will be free to act as we deem proper."

Chair was Receded to Give Up

Both His Offices.

Meve May Be Made to Force

Him Out.

Says He Will boon Make Another

A techson statement.

The resignation of John W. Reinhart both as President and receiver of the both as P ntinued, and we fill be free to act as we deem proper."

Chairman Brookfield's Bliss-Patterson ounty Committee will meet to-ngat in yric Hail, Forty-second street and this morning. Moran, who had been released, was rearrested.

Morris and Moran had been friends for years. They were invited to attend the christening of Patrick Merry's baby, on Aug. 4. After leaving Merry's house, at about 11 o'clock P. M. Morris and Moran quarrelied at the corner of Twanty-seventh street and Seventh avenus. Morris, if is said, punched Moran in the face. Moran started away, but Morris followed him. They came together again and suddenly Morris dropped to the sidewaik, crying: "I'm stabbed."

Morris was taken to the New York Hospital, where it was found that he had been stabbed in the back and abdomen. Subsequently he was removed to Belleyus. Numerical made an ante-mortem state-ment to Coroner Fitspatrick, is which he accused Moran of having stabbed him.

He Is Now Expected to Give Up The Infant Was Left in Miss Six Victims of the Book Island

REINHART TO RESIGN.

Lyric Hail, Forty-second street and Sixth avenue.

The business of the meeting will, it is understood, be principally the discussion of the attitude of Milholland and his crowd, and the means whereby they can be brought into the fold.

The decision of the Republican State Committee against John E. Milholland's pseudo organization of Republicans is a hard blow to Tammany Hall, of which the Milholland clique was an annex. It was even asserted that Tammany furnished Milholland the sinews to carry on the war.

Controversy are resting on their oars the morning, taking a retrospective the morning, taking a retrospective view of the happenings of vesterday. Considerable comment is heard about ment on the part of the Reorganization Committee in making public yesterday the several statements. Reinhart's explainting were made aware of what he was explaining.

a hard blow to Tammany Hall, of which the Milholiand clique was an annex. It was even asserted that Tammany furnished Miholiand the sinews to carry it was even asserted that Tammany furnished Miholiand some time are declared in favor of a straight Republican ticket, which would be the same as indersing the candidates of the Wigwam ring. Boos Platt said. "Me too!" again. He saw the folly of his course, and to save himself he sacrificed Miholiand. Both sides cordally detest. Platt as a leader save himself he sacrificed Miholiand. Both sides cordally detest. Platt as a leader save himself he sacrificed Miholiand. Both sides cordally detest. Platt as a leader save himself he sacrificed Miholiand. Both sides cordally detest. Platt as a leader save himself he sacrificed that the leak was with them. He criticised before the New York City.

As to Miholiand's talk of bothing, no hody cares He claimed to have a following of 1,000. That would she one-fifth the Headmiss of the same with the same of the regular. He could then have nominated his straight ticket in the name of the regular Republicans. He can'l do so. An effort will now be made by the antis to combine with the Republicans. He can'l do so. An effort will now be made by the antis to combine with the Republicans. He can'l do so. An effort will now be made by the antis to combine with the fact than a good Democrat.

HIS WOUNDS PROVED FATAL.

Morris Died Tale Merning. and more of Gov. Flower's friends at Sarationa. "Would rather see him defeated than a good Democrat."

HIS WOUNDS PROVED FATAL.

Morris Died Tale Merning. and morning to the department of the depa Stole Because He Was Hungry. Charles Haffler, twenty-five years old, who for trial in Jefferson Market Police Court this morning, charged with stealing bottles of milk morning, charged with the state of houses on Kart Pitty-sixth street, between Pitth and Sixth avenues. He was caught in the act. The man was no well dressed that the Justice did not betteve his plea of poverty.

The weather forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 8 P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Fair: stationary temperature; northerly winds.

The following record shows the changes in the tamperature during the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Ferry's pharmacy; 3 A. M., 645 A. M., 6713 M., 5

RUSE TO GET RID OF A BABY. MAY BE TWELVE DEAD

Sullivan's Charge

Now the Police Are Looking for Kate Courtney.

Ellen Sullivan, of 31 Roosevelt street walked into the Oak street station this morning and laid on the sergeant's desk a four-months-old male infant. "This child's mother's name is Kate Courtney." said Miss Builivan. "She left the child in my care last night, saying she would return in a few mo ments. She has not yet returned, and I cannot keep the baby any longer."

The Sergeant sent the infant to Ma-Travers at Police Headquarters, and detailed Detective Callahan to find the runaway mother.

An "Evening World" reporter called of de till Roosevelt street, but was told that Miss Sullivan was not at home. Mrs. O'Nell who runs a little bakery on the ground floor, said:

resigning.

All those interested in the Atchison controversy are resting on their oars this morning, taking a retrospective view of the happenings of yesterday. Considerable comment is heard about Wall street regarding the mismanagement on the part of the Reorganization Committee in making public yesterday the several statements. Reinhart's explanation was published before the public were made aware of what he was explaining

This morning Mr. Reinhart was seen at his onice. He denied positively that he gave out his explanation before it was read to the Reorganization Committee, and lett it to be intered that the leak was with them. He criticised

HORSE FLESH SOLD FOR BEEF

A number of provision packers were seen by an "Evening Wor.d" reporter this morning and all dended this story. No dealer, they said, could sell horse meat at a cent a pound, and no one in the trade could be induced to accept the story as beef. The difference would be instantly gereelved.

Manager Bailey, of the Jersey City Packing Company, a branch of Swift's Chicago concern, denounced the story as ridculeus.

"Why." said he, "a shipment of 1.160 slaughtered horses a day would provide New York with more dried beef than could be consumed. No single dealer could handic that amount of the stuff. It is the custom to send beef hams here in pickle, to be smoked almost as ordered, and no one carries a heavy stock of smoked beef."

Inquiry at local freight depots failed to discover any unusual shipments of dried beef to Jersey City.

Story that It Is to Have a Fine Hig

Plant at Pittsburg. (By Associated Press)

AMERICAN TIN-PLATE.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 10 .- General Manager David B. Oliver, of the Oliver Iron and Steel Company, is authority for the statement that the South Fifteenth street works of the Company will soon be turned into one of the largest fin-plate plants in the world.

The deal will be largely governed by the tariff settlement, and is to be oper-ated by a company of Eastern genti-men. The capital stock, it is said, will be $50,000. It is expected that the plant will be in operation in a few months.

Milholland Sees It Now.

Horror Thus Far Known.

Belief that the Disaster Was the Work of Wreckers.

Engine and Three Cars Thrown Down from a High Treetle.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 10.-Nothing re-mains of the Rock Island train which was wrecked five miles south of this city tast night but a heap of cinders and twisted iron. Mingled with the debris are the remains of at least eight men. and it is believed that the total number of deaths will reach twelve. Tho known to have been killed are as fol-

ISAAC DEPEW, engineer, Council Blufe, in-W. O. HAMBEL, Fairbury, Neb., attorner. As he opened the door she toppled for-

The injured are F. F. Scott, Holton, Kanssel express measurger, fatally injured internally; Col. C. J. Bills, Fairbury, Neb., Treasurer of the National Guard Association of the United States, leg badly cut, will recover; Jay Mc-Dowell, Fairbury, Neb., legs cut and head badly bruised; Harry Poots, Council Bluffs, brakeman, leg broken.

Smoked in Iowa and Shipped to only one of the train crew that sneaped, Jersey City.

(By Associated Press.)

SIOUX CITY. Ia., Aug. 10.—It has just been discovered here that a local firm has been slaughtering cheap ranch horses, the flesh of which is made into "dried beef."

The product is all shipped to Jersey City. The proprietors say that they convert 1,100 horses daily into "dried beef."

They buy the horses for less money on the ranches than cattle can be had for.

A number of provision packers were seen by an "Evening World" reporter this morning and all denied this story. No dealer, they said, could sel horse meat at a cent a pound, and no one in the trade could be induced to accept the sing as beef. The difference would be instantly gereeived.

Manager Bailey, of the Jersey City Packing Company, a branch of Swift's chicago concern, denounced the story as ridiculous.

"Why," said he, "a shipment of 1,100 slaughtered horses a day would provide slaughtered horses a day would provide now they consumed. No single dealer could handic that amount of the stuff. It is the custom to send beef hams here in pickle, to be smoked almost as or dered, and no one carries a beavy stock of smoked beef."

Inquiry at local freight depots failed to discover any unusual shipments of dried beef to Jersey City.

Inquiry at local freight depots failed to discover any unusual shipments of dried beef to Jersey City and the horse of the cars.

Inquiry at local freight depots failed to discover any unusual shipments of dried beef to Jersey City.

Inquiry at local freight depots failed to discover any unusual shipments of dried beef to Jersey City.

Idaho's Republican Ticket.

(By Associated Press.)

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 10.—The Republican State Convention yesterday nominated the following ticket: Edgar Wilson, of Boise, for Congress; Gov. McConnell renominated; Auditor, Frank Ramasy; Bupreme Court Judge, J. Haston, Treasurer J. Busting; Lectenani-Governor, F. Allia, Superintendent of Public Instruction, C. I. Forceman; Secretary of State, J. W. Car-

A Show Window Fire.

Jacob Pagrotsky struck a match to three a light on some diamond rings in the show window of his jewelry store at 200 Bowery at 9 o'clock thin morning and let it drop on a piece of paper which had been used as a stopper for a bottle of bearine. The paper was in a biase in an in-stant, and in a short time the showcase was in flames. The fire was extinguished with a bucket of water. The damage was small.

LAST EDITION.

TOTTERED HOME DYING.

Mrs. Hastings Thought to Have Been Drugged and Assaulted.

BEEN DUT SHOPPING

Reached Her Home Early in the Morning and Died Soon After.

HER ARM SAID TO BE BROKEN.

Ch, Will! I Have Seen Poisoned I' She Told Her Husband: "They Drugged and Tried to Rob Me.!"

Mrs. Mabel H. Hastings, the wife of William Hastings, a clerk in the Tax office, who resides in a flat at 487 Coumbus avenue, died suddenly at 245 o'clock this morning, under circumtances that support the suspicion that she is a victim of foul play.

Mrs. Hastings was an attractive woman twenty-eight years old. She was married seven years ago, and had not been in robust health for some time.

During the past year she had been great sufferer from asthme, and subject to attacks which would render her alost insensible at any time and place. Yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, she left her flat, informing some neighbors that she was going to Alexander's store in Sixth avenue, to buy some shoes, then to Macy's to make a few purchase She took with her $14 in a pocketbook which she carried in her hand. She said she would be back at 6 o'clock. She did not return at the appoints time, and as the evening passed and it reached midnight, her husband was preparing to notify the police, when the flat bell rang. downstairs and found his wife leaning ward exclaiming, "Oh! William, I have been polsoned. I have been drugged! - COUNSELMAN, elevator builder, Narks. They tried to rob me, but they didn't get my money.

"I struck him over the head with m

Mr. Hastings, scarcely heeding these disconnected and hysterical statements. half carried and half dragged his wife up the stairs to their flat on the first discovered that she had, tightly clutched one in each hand, her pocketbook still containing $9.75 and her umbrells with the handle in two pieces. Mrs. Hastings seemed to be suffering greatly, but refused to allow her husband to go for a doctor, and, as he had often seen her pass through apparently similar attacks, he thought that the present one would subside. He busied himself questioning her as to where she had been and what had happened to her.

About $30 A. M. she complained of feeling worse, and rising from the sefu staggered to the mantelpiece, ou which she leaned heavily. Mr. Hastings ran to the kitchen to get something to relieve her, and when he returned he found her upon her kness on the floor.

He dragged her back to the sofa and saw that she was dying. He aroused the neighbors and sent for a doctor, sponded. The police of the West Sixty-eighth street station had heard nothing about the matter up to 10.20 e'clock this morning. Only the Coroner had been noti-It is believed that one of Mrs. Hast-but the woman was dead before any re-

Held for Swindling Italians.

W. C. Mainland, of 186 Liberty street, who charged with maintaining at intelligence office in Dames. The fire was exitagaisted with a bucket of water. The damage was small.

All strice Steel or Wood Wind Mills and Trowers; Arteany Wolf drilling; horress years experience. (halogues mailed from U. F. Understrope, Peckselli, N. Y.

domestic, feil out of a window at 2412 oe way or another must be had! ene they liked from this "calendar," indicates that McLaughlin or Cross may be hauled before the Police Board on Weinesday next.
There is another point, Mr. Weilman and significantly that he was after bigger game." Inspector McLaughlin is a special protege of Supt. Byrnes. The least me between the "greatest policeman that ever lived" and the Commissioners, i. e. President simmy Martin, are known to be very much strained, and it is quite possible that the "bigger same" to be hunted next is the Superiniendent's stanch friend, Inspector Billy Miclaughlin.
Cup: Adam Cross is a protege of Gov.
Flower, yet he, too, is included in the accusations of the dive-keepers of the Maringe street ball-wick.
A man close to Mr. Weilman assured an "Evening World" reporter that Mcaccident would not be tried. That could leave only Adam Cross, of the didinge street police, for Devery, it is solicited, is too ill.
Another thing that seems to indicate that the Eliaridge atreet cases are not in knocous desuetude is the anxiety of the prosecutors about the winesses whose teatmony is expected to be of
the prosecutors about the winesses
whose teatmony is expected to be of
the prosecutors about the winesses
whose teatmony is expected to be of
the prosecutors about the winesses whose teatmony is expected to be indesirent, but "The Eventing World" is possessin of positive proof that special officers have been engaged for everal days in locating Charles Prince and Rhods Sanford, another diveleage who claims she paid $500 initialeage from an another diveleage who claims she paid $500 initialeage from an another diveleage who claims she paid $500 initialeage from an another diveleage who claims she paid $500 initialeage from an another diveleage from an another diveleage who claims she paid $500 initialeage from an another diveleage from an another diveleage who claims she paid $500 initialeage from an another diveleage from an another diveleage who claims she paid $500 initialeage from an another d Third avenue this morning, while clean-One of the Republican conferrees said ing windows. She was injured about the head, and was taken to the Harlem Hospital. Mrs. Mary Horner, thirty-two years old of 524 East Eighty-third street, while hanging clothes on a line at her home .his morning, fell out of the second-story window and sprained both her ankles. She refused to go to a hospital crats ROBBED HIS MOTHER. Tietjen Admitted His Guilt and Was LEESBURG, Va., Aug. 10.-A heavy charge of larceny. Mary Tietjen, his mother, was the complainant. She state a young man of sell that he store her spectacles, a pair struck by the bi of carrings and a breastorn, valued in all stantly killed. The son admitted his guilt, and said that he had pawned them. He was held for trial.

Wyoming Democratic Candidates.

C. W. Schooley, nineteen years old, of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. Dunbar, Mrs. Peacock and Mrs. Samuel Lesile were seriously injured, and a number of other persons were hurt.

objection."
Mr. Osborne, assistant to Mr. Well-man, was "astonished that President Martin should have said that no Cap-tain will be called for trial Welnesday